Level Seventeen: Reconnection to Your Home Star System

In searching for our roots (so to speak), we have, in the past, studied and visited sacred sites, studied and visited sites of different vibrations, made pilgrimages to other countries to study the religions and artifacts of those countries, read, studied and even some have written many, many books -- but yet, we still “long” for our roots (home). Places like the pyramids of Egypt, the pyramids of South America, the Ancient civilizations such as the Anasazi of Chaco Canyon, the Incas of Machu Picchu... we know we may have been there, but none “feel” right. We gaze into the sky, to the heavens and wonder... “Is that my home?”... We have been told... “You are from the Pleiades” another will say, “You are from Sirius”. Another yet will say, “You are from Andromeda or Orion”... on and on and on and on. You wonder from which galaxy, which constellation, which planet... you might call home... Nothing quite feels right, through the years, because you have no other choices... actually didn’t know you had other choices... you start believing that one of the above or something else is home. You try to connect... but somehow, nothing feels quite right.

All these places have a draw for us as we are trying to gain pieces of ourselves. As we have advanced vibrationally over the period of years, these sacred sites have become less of a draw for us because we have been able to recreate the level of the vibrations that were in those periods of time. As it turns out, very few of us are from any of the known planets or galaxies. These places although visited by many of us, were probably the first stopping place in “our known universe” when we got here. Since all of the other places were shut down, actually inaccessible to anyone but the Creator... Not even angels, archangels, ascended masters, etc have had access... At least those assigned to “our world”. It has been like only “we” existed... with our constellations, our galaxies, etc... this has been “the universe”. If anyone has claimed they “channeled beyond this “world”... then run, run fast.... No one, absolutely no one except... well, you know “the Grand Pooh Bear of it all” has had access of any kind to.....

Now, as you read this, we are setting the stage for new adventures. As of November 8, 2003, star gates are opening that have been closed from the time of Lemuria and Atlantis. As the first star gate was opened, it set the stage for the other star gates to open... it is like a domino effect. Haven’t you always known something else existed????? Well, you were (are) right. There is certainly a difference of opinion as to how many “systems”, etc the star gates will open into.... Personally speaking, I don’t think any of us know. But, for now, for our purposes in this newsletter... we have been told there are 99 other complete universes, this is where it gets a little confusing... as we think of our world as a universe... when actually everything inclusive... seen and unseen is a universe...but, again, for our purposes... we will call what we are familiar with the first universe... and there are 99 others.... universes. Wow! Folks have called this The Harmonic Concordance. What is it exactly?

“The Harmonic Concordance is simply a multitude of Planetary aspects and shifts, heralding the opening of otherworldly star gates to connect us within the Divine light of Cause, with our other worldly brothers and sister from afar.” Written by Athene Raefiel.

We had a client send us the following:

This Hubble telescope website has some really awesome pictures. It may take awhile to load, even with broadband, but if you'd like to see what it sees in outer space it is well worth it. Each picture has a legend or description at the bottom, so be sure to scroll your screen so you can see the bottom of each picture.

As you look at those pictures, you start to realize how vast the universe(s) is... Now, perhaps, we can find our roots... the question becomes “How?” Strangely enough, or maybe not strange... we have been shown how to help individuals find his/her creation (first birth) planet and connect to the DNA of that home planet. We cannot activate anyone’s DNA... DNA is activated by each individual as his or her vibration increases... but we can connect a person’s DNA to that of his or her home. Along the journey, each individual will visit and collect pieces of oneself that have been left in those other planets, galaxies, constellations, etc. and finally anchor oneself to the home planet. Each person gets new gatekeepers to help them (these are in addition to the ones that help each person in this dimension). Loren and Diane (together) accompany each person on this journey until the connection is made. Cost $999.00

1.... “Why do I need those folks to help me?” Loren and Diane know how to get you to your original home. They are experienced and have the knowledge to facilitate this reconnection and make it as trouble-free, painless, smooth and timely as possible.

2.... “Why would I want to do this anyway?” You have been seeking all your lifetime, never feeling that you belong, that you feel alone. Doing a connection with “home” will make you feel more complete, more balanced, certainly – more connected to family.

3.... “How would that help me today?” Instead of spending time seeking completion, you will be able to use more time “living” and “being”. Just in writing these words, it almost makes us cry. (Not in sorrow but in joy.)
