Level 35: Quantum Cellular Shift

We have lived many lifetimes. In the past we have gained access to knowledge and information that is useful to us in this lifetime. It has been difficult for us to comprehend and understand and put into practice. What we have been able to retrieve and implement has worked well for us. What we are going to talk about is not “Past Life Regression.”

Up to this point in time, all of the past life information has been stacked like the ice core, the linear pipe-shaped ice core that contains history as measured by scientists at the North and South poles. You have got to look along the linear marks and see who you were, perhaps what the energies were and what happened. What we didn't know is that our DNA was also stored in the Akashic records. Each past-life has a different DNA because you have had different parents for every lifetime. You have different genetics.

With this level, we show you the door to quantum cellular shift and you will have access to information that is unbelievable. Your higher-self has been the same soul energy in every lifetime. You have a friend who has participated in every one of your lifetimes.

Why is this important? Your mind is becoming quantum. The quantum mind has the ability to look at everything that is happening now. Becoming quantum is a little difficult at first since it requires you to think differently. We are evolving. It's an evolution where we are meeting and interfacing with our own magnetic grid, the solar wind overlaps our magnetic grid, which in turn overlaps the field that is created by our DNA. Therefore the same messages that the solar system gets, you do too.

Human beings are emotional and that is good because emotions are quantum. It takes the intellect to construct a box around the emotions and we call that balance. The human mind is a quantum attribute. Consciousness is quantum. The human brain was designed to think quantumly. It is only through logic and intellectual balance that biological synapse becomes linear. (Chemical synapses allow neurons to form circuits within the central nervous system. They are crucial to the biological computations that underlie perception and thought. They allow the nervous systems to connect to and control other systems of the body.) Becoming quantum is already in our grasp. All we have to do is to figure out how to open and close the various synapses to create the kind of human being that is the beginning of the evolved ones. We have become more enlightened by raising our vibrational rates little by little or we change and stay changed. By making all these small changes we have created new beginnings each time. That is the wild card that has occurred this current Earthly life cycle which has never occurred before. This shift is before us and we are sitting in the middle of it.

Another quantum aspect is sleep. When we retreat into what we call sleep, perhaps what we call the alpha state, that middle portion of consciousness that is without construct. What happens? Have you ever had a dream where nothing made sense? Out of time, out of place, the human beings in your dream didn't even know each other due to linear time. You may have been in different places and different times that make no sense in real life, yet it all made sense at the moment. When you go to that state, it is quantum. It is a quantum thing, alpha dreaming. The brain is in a state that is without the intellect's control. So it becomes quantum and without structure. It is outside of linearity. There is no time construct placed upon it. Everything happens at the same time and it's just fine with you while you're there. When you're in the dream, you're not tearing your hair out in confusion, are you? You are just enjoying it. Quantumness is a natural state.

In your dream state or perhaps during periods of time when you are in altered states you may get bits of information or ideas for to implement. Some of these bits of awareness are communicated to you from the other side of the veil of fears which is on the other side in linearity. How many of you have had messages that have been life changing? Maybe you may have seen something while in an altered state, visualization. It may appear like this: Here is what you are going to do. Here is the book you are going to write. Here is what your future is going to be like. Here is the healing modality you are going to teach, etc. In a quantum state, did God tell you to come back and implement the information immediately? I think the answer would be no. You could start gathering information to implement the task that was being presented to you and file it away until it is appropriate for you to implement the task. Here is what a quantum thinker does: They get the message, come back from the visualization and celebrate the message. It is like a ticket that you are holding in your hand that says there's a train coming. If you look closely at the ticket, there is no time on it. It doesn't say when? But, you still have the ticket. That's enough for the quantum mind.

I want to digress a bit so you can look at the box you are in called time. How linear it is that you can only go in one direction. You can't turn left or right, only straight into the future. The clock only goes in one direction... forward. There is no such thing as a clock that goes up and down, or left and right. It just goes forward and that is the way we think. We take that linear bias and apply it to everything. All thought, all reasoning, all logic, all spirituality is done with your bias. We are not linear. Some of you will be stepping out of this soon and be more understanding about what is going on in your life. For now, however, much of this is double-talk.

This is not quantum thought. The quantum mind looks at it all happening now. Therefore, what is happening NOW is available to you NOW. How would you like to go into that seemingly linear untouchable history and pick up the help that you came here for? For those of you, who are trying to heal yourselves, this level, will truly help, because your biological self, this lifetime, is going to respond. (Miracles have happened in the past and will continue to happen in the future.) You must go to the Akashic records to a lifetime when your DNA was pure and bring it forward to this lifetime and integrate the pure DNA. That is what a quantum individual would do. By integrating the new DNA, the disease will never come back. At a quantum level, you never had the disease.

What if this is the only reason the Akachic records exist? You have lived all those lives. Think about the possibilities? That is what he quantum Human Being does. It creates mastery.

It takes both our energies in partnership to stabilize your body, mind and spirit and raise to a very specific resonance. This resonance is a particular tone that is specific to you and found on your souls blueprint. At that millisecond, we permanently open the electromagnetic shutter. This is so you will have easy access to the Akashic records in the future. Cost $888.88.
