Level 49: Multi-Perceptual Simultaneous Awareness

As of late, we have been finding ourselves walking or driving through areas that reek with information from history (not ancient history but buildings that date from the late 1800's, etc.), and then a couple of doors down, a more recent building was constructed of totally different construction, design and materials used, telling a whole different story than the older structure.

With the classes I have been taking in photography, the instructor is encouraging us to look at things in a different way, trying to get us to "Think Out-side the Box", if you will. This effect is very powerful for us, as seekers. The world that we were walking through became more alive. It was as if we were developing a multi-perceptual awareness. This form of awareness is anchored in the present and is sharpening our acuity of the normally undetectable energy from the past.

We were given a master code that we can use to help you open your various centers for awareness. You may tell us that you are already open and receive information and that is somewhat true but at this time your awareness and the way you perceive things are through many filters and you guard or protect yourself from this information. We remove these filters and/or blockages.

This level of work helps you tune in to the subtleties and assists you in being more open and receptive so you can participate more fully with life and also helps you to understand how the invisible impacts us and our society. Many life forms exist beyond our own and every action, emotion and thought leaves an energetic imprint that we can pick up on and may also be affected by. Many of you feel as though you are physically missing something in your life. By observing various areas that you visit and take in the energy of that area, it may fill a void that you have been sensing and you become more complete.

This is a missing puzzle piece that we have been searching for. By doing this level and practicing the exercises you will feel more whole as a multi-dimensional being. By doing this level it helps you to become more in tune with your world(s). Cost: $777.00
