

Chapter 6: Success Centering

Only Love is Infinite

Unconditional love is a flower that blooms forever

We need to really KNOW who we are,
speak our spiritual truths, and express our beliefs in all that we are and do. We can no longer hide in the

It is a time for inner-reflection. Like a good movie or roller coaster, life cycles up and down allowing us to appreciate who we are and who we choose to be around. Life and how we live it is a choice, if you believe that, you and we are manifesting our reality.

If you love life it will love you right back.

Celebrate your passion.

Listen to your heart above all other voices.

Celebrate your wisdom.

Pursue big dreams instead of small realities.

Celebrate your priorities.

See every ending as a new beginning.

Celebrate your resiliency.

Discovering your real measurements had nothing to do with numbers or statistics.

Celebrate your self worth.

Be kind, loving and patient with yourself.

Celebrate tenderness.

Throw away all your excuses.

Celebrate your accountability.

Are you missing opportunities by being sensible?

Celebrate your spirit.

Turn your cant's into cans.

Turn your dreams into plans.

Celebrate your goals.

Ignore people who say it can't or couldn't be done.

Celebrate your independence.

Celebrate your magic.

Celebrate your faith and spirituality.

Celebrate your self-reliance.

*Celebrate your presence.
Celebrate your friendship.
You have a way of brightening each day.
Celebrate your radiance.
You make the whole world feel like home.
Celebrate your warmth.
Enjoy more and endure less.
Celebrate your choices.
Decide to live life like you imagined.
Celebrate your freedom.
Color your thoughts with only the brightest hues.
Celebrate your optimism.
Be creative letting life be your canvas.
Celebrate your brilliance.
Hold your head high and look the world straight in the eye.
Celebrate your strength.
Be the light at the end of the tunnel and become the light for others.
Celebrate your compassion.
Design the life you love.
Celebrate joy.
Take the lead and build your wings on the way down.
Celebrate daring.
Say good-bye to unhealthy relationships.
Celebrate your happiness.
Remain true to yourself.
Celebrate authenticity.
Make the world a better place.*

Celebrate you!!!

As you read the above thoughts think of yourself looking into a mirror, no, get up and go to a mirror so you can really see yourself and honor you for the moment with these thoughts being reflected back at you... Do you have a connection with your inner self? What emotions come up as you go through this list? In a way, you are becoming in harmony with your physical realities. If you think about it,

We need to learn how to assist others in bridging the gap between who they “think” they are and who we “know” them to be is a high wire act and it takes a lot of spiritual refinement and restraint and patience.

you can recognize things that you are not in harmony with which then becomes a signal for things you may need to work on. We need to really KNOW who we are, speak our spiritual truths, and express our beliefs in all that we are and do. We can no longer hide in the background.

It has been made clear that we need to come together as a community online, a gathering space for those who are learning how to be ALL of themselves in the real world, acclimating to our new abilities as humans living in multiple dimensions.

The main function of this chapter of work is to utilize the new flow of energies to bring our inner selves to our outer world... to learn how to get more comfortable in our new-human skins to the point that we allow ourselves to be seen and heard for much more of who we truly are. With this in mind, also know that we will be safe and protected while putting ourselves more out there. Before we need to be fully out and about in our new-human vessel which comes equipped with a modified zero-point equilibrium (meaning centered and balanced without all the trappings around us - the new us - the ultimate neutral us) so that a comfortable level of self-expression and feelings of safety are standard. Learning how to be authentic on the outside and truly value ourselves while also adjusting to the volatile and confusing energies being kicked up all around us, can be a bit of a freak show.

With the moments to come, while most times we would prefer to stay hidden in our closet, we are becoming more aware and know that this is exactly what we have always done and what we are being challenged NOT to do any more. We need to learn how to assist others in bridging the gap between who they “think” they are and who we “know” them to be is a high wire act and it takes a lot of spiritual refinement and restraint and patience. In a way we need to assist others as if they are preschoolers and not lose patience with them but nurture them and love them unconditionally without judgment.

Think of how far you have come in the last 13 years... The people that you are dealing with may just be beginning their journey. The world today is VERY different than it was even 2 days ago, let alone 13 years and we are very different than whom we were... but regardless, we have to find our footing and unite because the whole purpose of this journey is to stay in our bodies and live earth-lives otherwise our influence is moot. What we mean by this is merely maintaining the inner-ability to show up for yourselves, to not shy away from the core resonance of who you are in truth, in each and every moment.

The main function of this chapter of work is to utilize the new flow of energies to bring our inner selves to our outer world... to learn how to get more comfortable in our new-human skins to the point that we allow ourselves to be seen and heard for much more of who we truly are.

We are going to have to LOVE ourselves through this potentially uncomfortable time... to forgive ourselves for the many embarrassing moments we will encounter while trying to find our center and just be human again. The good news is that once we are firmly anchored into these new suits, our integration with the world will be mostly effortless because we will be protected in our own force field of LOVE. We still have to go through some things to completion which will ensure that we face or resolve any past, residual fears of stepping out and speaking up. (Just in case you are thinking of squirming out of this... we are here to tell you that this is NOT-AN-OPTION.) We are all in this together and we all absolutely need each other to come out, to find the courage to be true and to walk through these last miles united as one.

So, the name of the game has always been authenticity and impeccability. It really doesn't matter what yoga class you are currently enrolled in, what vegan or raw diet you're on, what books you've read, if you meditate or say your daily affirmations, what channeler/spiritualist you subscribe to, if you practice positive thinking, burn incense, hug trees, bend spoons, astral travel, or own just the right crystals... it doesn't even matter how many people you've helped. In the end, the only thing that matters by way of our ascension is if we've done the personal work. The REAL work, the hard work, the inner work, all those other things are just stops along the way to truth and in too many cases, distractions from it.

The bottom line is the world is within us all... if we aren't whole, neither is it. For the next few months we will be called again and again, unrelentingly, to find the courage to shed light on our remaining pockets of inauthenticity and Love, LOVE, love ourselves through to divine impeccability. Our physical bodies and souls are being squeezed through a sieve to filter out all the remaining goo, that sticky protective coating that is always trying to protect our beautiful and raw vulnerability. This layer has been needed to protect us up until now. In order to progress, this protective layer has to be removed in order to shift the flow of from the inside out instead of from the outside in... it will literally be like you are starting to breathe fresh air again after being cooped up in a small closet for a very long time. Our bodies will need a bit of time to adjust at first, learning how to regulate our intake and output. We don't want to create havoc within this whole new system. This "pure oxygen" has been made available to us in small increments so we can learn to readjust to this for a period of time, increasing the amounts a little bit at a time.

You will notice the air will feel purer and easier to breathe, as you become accustomed to this vibration, you will see how things start to change as your body will respond positively to this increased amount of oxygen in your atmosphere and you will have an increased amount of energy.

The only thing that matters by way of our ascension is if we've done the personal work. The REAL work, the hard work, the inner work, all those other things are just stops along the way to truth and in too many cases, distractions from it.

The most rewarding experience we have had to date because on the other side of our tremendous past life fears of being powerful, is discovering where our true freedom lies.

Each of us who are consciously on this journey at this time has had experiences of feeling ashamed and unsure of ourselves, feeling of having swallowed our self-expression because we were ignored, overlooked, laughed at or even punished for being different. It now is time to release these blocks fully so that we can embrace a balanced state of heart infused expression which includes pride in our uniqueness, worthiness, openness, self-love, self esteem, clear communication, etc. We are going to say this again... It is now safe to be ALL of ourselves. Now is the time to step out of the shadows into the light of our authentic truth, to radiate our LOVE outward in all directions by just being who we naturally are without shame or pretense.

This chapter of work will assist you in holding the unique vibration that we will be required to master since we will be learning to shift our energy outward after a very long period of being inward.

The year 2012 has been our break-out year where we are required to come to an open level of communication and resonance projecting from our heart-centered truth for it is time for us to be seen/felt/heard as the spoken voice for the people around us or our community.

Again, our challenge will be in overcoming collective fears of past persecution for the purposes of clearing the grid and enabling a balanced expression of our spirituality without being preachy for all.

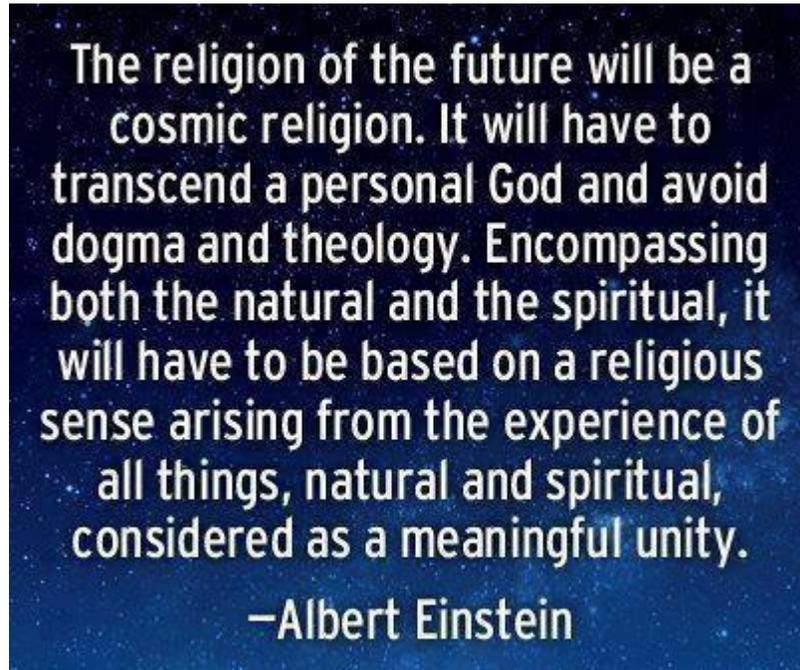

This chapter of work will assist you in holding the unique vibration that we will be required to master since we will be learning to shift our energy outward after a very long period of being inward. You may be hearing words like communion, healing/health, unity, co-creation, balance of inner/outer worlds, prosperity through purpose, ease, play, flow, etc... but to actualize those things we have been working toward and not take any baggage across the Winter Equinox. We need to step up our game and really solidify our commitment to be true... in all ways.

Our divine truth resides in our heart-space for a reason. It is literally central to our new human experience. Our TRUTH is the center of our human form, the center of our chakra system and will be the center of our new-human world which keeps us inextricably in balance. With the ability to be more of ourselves and to clearly live and speak our core truth comes the evolution of a new-human heart system. As a result, we have been undergoing a reconstructive heart surgery of sorts

With this latest chapter of work, we will be assisting you in this transition. It feels like we are truly between worlds and need to anchor ourselves into something with substance while we learn to navigate with our new bodies in our current world. For those of you who have been working diligently on your personal baggage (judgments, emotional issues, etc.) in this life-time, Success Centering shakes things up like a physical earth quake which breaks down your major core issues into small enough pieces to process and release.

We came across this the other day and really liked it:

Well, that is it in a nutshell.....

Cost is.....

Chapter 6: Success Centering... $661 (equaling 13)

Chapter 6: Success Centering with 1 month of 3 C's (Consulting, Counseling, Coaching) : $861
