From our state of deep thought or dreamy abstraction.

No. 9, November 2003

Hi, Friends.....

With all the activity going on in and around us, it has taken a bit of time to actually get this newsletter written. We have arrived in our new home in Washington state, but are still unpacking boxes, boxes and still more boxes. Since our stuff was in storage for the past five years, as we unpack, we wonder a lot, why in the world we saved some of the things we did..... the thought comes up a lot “what were we thinking?” The whole move to Washington has been synchronistic. We just couldn’t decide where to move and when, etc. The timing of it all was very fast. It is like you have to know when it is right. Well, we almost knew.... Catch that almost word? We were rear ended at the time we were deciding what to do... pushed forward. We had organized the storage units (our stuff had been in storage for 5 years), knew we had to make a decision... well, the accident pole-vaulted us forward, we had an apartment rented within days, wonderful folks to come forward to help with the move (financially as well as physically).. all within two weeks. We unloaded the trailer on October 20th... 5 inches of rain came down in Des Moines, Washington that day...setting a record even for this area. Then we found out that on October 20th, 2003, some people went to Florence Italy for an event , Harmonic Epiphany, the Feast of the Blessing of Water; and also the Feast of Lights or the Way of Illumination. Needless to say, we did not have to go to Florence Italy to be blessed with water on the 20th. On November 8th a major stargate opened in our world with the eclipse of the moon.

New Work:.

Reconnection

In searching for our roots (so to speak), we have, in the past, studied and visited sacred sites, studied and visited sites of different vibrations, made pilgrimages to other countries to study the religions and artifacts of those countries, read, studied and even some have written many, many books -- but yet, we still “long” for our roots (home). Places like the pyramids of Egypt, the pyramids of South America, the Ancient civilizations such as the Anasazi of Chaco Canyon, the Incas of Machu Picchu... we know we may have been there, but none “feel” right. We gaze into the sky, to the heavens and wonder... “Is that my home?”... We have been told... “you are from the Pleiades” another will say, “you are from Sirius”. Another yet will say, “you are from Andromeda or Orion”... on and on and on and on. You wonder from which galaxy, which constellation, which planet... you might call home..... Nothing quite feels right, but through the years because you have no other choices... actually didn't know you had other choices... you start believing that one of the above or something else is home. You try to connect... but somehow, nothing feels quite right.

All these places have a draw for us as we are trying to gain pieces of ourselves. As we have advanced vibrationally over the period of years, these sacred sites have become less of a draw for us because we have been able to recreate the level of the vibrations that were in those periods of time. As it turns out, very few of us are from any of the known planets or galaxies. These places although visited by many of us, were probably the first stopping place in “our known universe” when we got here. Since all of the other places were shut down, actually inaccessible to anyone but the Creator... Not even angels, archangels, ascended masters, etc have had access..... At least those assigned to “our world”. It has been like only “we” existed... with our constellations, our galaxies, etc... this has been “the universe”. If anyone has claimed they “channeled beyond this “world”... then run, run fast.... No one, absolutely no one except... well, you know “the Grand Pooh Bear of it all” has had access of any kind to.....

Now, as you read this, we are setting the stage for new adventures. As of November 8, 2003, stargates are opening that have been closed from the time of Lemuria and Atlantis. As the first stargate was opened, it set the stage for the other stargates to open... it is like a domino effect. Haven't you always known something else existed???? Well, you were (are) right. There is certainly a difference of opinion as to how many “systems”, etc the stargates will open into.... Personally speaking, I don't think any of us know. But, for now, for our purposes in this newsletter... we have been told there are 99 other complete (this is where it gets a little confusing... as we think of our world as a universe... when actually everything inclusive.. seen and unseen is a universe...but, again, for our purposes.. we will call what we are familiar with the first universe... and there are 99 others.... universes. Wow! Folks have called this The Harmonic Concordance. What is it exactly? “ The Harmonic Concordance is simply a multitude of Planetary aspects and shifts, heralding the opening of otherworldly stargates to connect us within the Divine light of Cause, with our other worldly brothers and sister from afar.”

We had a client send us the following:

This Hubble telescope website has some really awesome pictures. It may take awhile to load, even with broadband, but if you'd like to see what it sees in outer space it is well worth it. Each picture has a legend or description at the bottom, so be sure to scroll your screen so you can see the bottom of each picture.

<http://wires.news.com.au/special/mm/030811-hubble.htm>

As you look at those pictures, you start to realize how vast the universe(s) is... Now, perhaps, we can find our roots... the question becomes “How?” Strangely enough, or maybe not strange.. we have been shown how to help individuals find his/her creation (first birth) planet and connect to the DNA of that home planet. We cannot activate anyone's DNA... DNA is activated by each individual as his or her vibration increases... but we can connect a person's DNA to that of his or her home. Along the journey, each individual will visit and collect pieces of oneself that have been left in those other planets, galaxies, constellations, etc. and finally anchor oneself to the home planet. Each person gets new gate keepers to help them (these are in addition to the ones that help each person in this dimension). Loren and Diane (together) accompany each person on this journey until the connection is made.

You ask... "Why do I need these folks to help me?" "Why would I want to do this anyway?" "How would that help me today?" "Who do these folks think they are anyway?"

1.... "Why do I need those folks to help me?" Loren and Diane know how to get you to your original home. They are experienced and have the knowledge to facilitate this reconnection and make it as trouble-free, painless, smooth and timely as possible.

2.... "Why would I want to do this anyway?" You have been seeking all your lifetime, never feeling that you belong, that you feel alone. Doing a connection with "home" will make you feel more complete, more balanced, certainly – more connected to family.

3.... "How would that help me today?" Instead of spending time seeking completion, you will be able to use more time "living" and "being". Just in writing these words, it almost makes us cry. (Not in sorrow but in joy.)

4.... "Who do these folks think they are anyway?" Our purpose is to bring through information. This does not make us the pie.... It just gives us a specialty in bringing new techniques (well new to 3rd dimension) through. We realize that many will say "I can do that, I can do this...." It actually takes both of our combined energies, talents and psychic abilities in addition to lots of TIME to organize all the information, to interpret what in the world is being given to us, and a tremendous amount of fortitude to hold the space while it is all happening. Only then, in combining it with what we already know, what we have read, what we have experienced – can we put it all together to come up with the new technique. Soooooooooooooo, yes, others will say they can do what we do. A diamond mined from the earth also has a look-alike in a cubic zirconia but though it may look like a diamond, the cubic zirconia does not have the properties, the quality, the durability of a diamond. It is at best a quick fix. There are many talents we do not have... I (Diane) am not much of a cook, I can't program computers, I can't adjust like a chiropractor, I can't give massages, I am a horrid singer (in fact have very little musical talent except for listening)... Loren isn't much of a mechanic, he can't do plumbing, he can't play football, he also .....well, we can go on and on and on. What we can do is the work we present to you and do it well. Again, there are many, many things that aren't our talents.. we can do them, but, lets just say, others do them better. We aren't the pie... but our slice in the pie of life.... is the work we have presented to you over the years... and this is our talent.

This work is not part of the Level work we do... It may or may not start another series... who knows.... Certainly not us..... We are calling it RECONNECTION. We have done a few and it takes us about 10 hours.. This work is done absentee, but with an appointment as to the time the journey is planned.

Secondly, if you haven't read the October email from us on the energy orb... we will talk a bit about it now. This "developing the personal orb thing" has proved to be VERY beneficial to folks. You may want to consider it.

Your Personal Orb of Energy

I want you to consider what is considered personal energy. Ever since you were born, your personal energy has mixed with, blended with, been taken from, been given to everyone around you in your life. Just think of all the people that you have come in contact with. You may not have said anything to and individual, just passed them on the street, but they could have taken some of your energy. What if your picture was in the paper or magazine? Could someone tap into your energy just from seeing your picture in a publication? It hasn't been until recent years that we have been concerned about our personal energy but not to the extent of all the possibilities.

There are times in your life when you are corded or there is an energy sent by someone that is hooked into your auric field. This could be a family member a friend or someone that sees something in you that they personally want. You as a compassionate person have allowed this to take place. There are times that you have gone and cleared out these cords.

How do they get in if you are continuing to do the "Gold Light Exercise", etc.? If someone called you on the phone where there was an element of surprise or shock, you take a breath of air in, when this happens, the energy being sent to you by the person on the phone anchors into your auric field.

When we create Your Personal Orb of Energy, the cords being sent to you will go into the orb and not your own energy. This is the same for psychic attacks sent to you or someone trying to "hook" into your energy field – they will all go to your personal "orb", not to you.

As always, it has been a pleasure spending the last few minutes with you... do stay in touch.

***** For future reference... This special time is accelerated once again with the Solar eclipse on the 23rd of November 2003... be ready for it.

There's nothing you can do about what has happened in the past, and the future will be empty unless you commit to living in the present. The here and now is the place to make a difference. Make a habit of taking notice, learning and adapting.

Don't long for the past or put off your life until the future. The time to live your life is now. The Daily Guru

Just in case you haven't read about your Energy Signature... we are reprinting it. This could be a reason if you have no energy.

Energy Signatures

Did you know you have an energy signature? The energy signature that is unique to you was originally put into place in order for all parts of you to be able to find itself in each incarnation. In Lifetimes prior to this one, soul (spirit) leaves and crosses over into other worlds; mind either goes with the soul into the other worlds, it "dies" with the physical body and stays energetically with the body, or goes back to the universal mind waiting for the time to be re-united with body and soul (this is really dependent upon choice of the mind); the body "dies" a physical death (since energy cannot be destroyed, changes into to energy and waits for reunion with mind and spirit (soul)). So you have your trinity (body, mind (logic and emotion), and sprit (soul) scattered all over until the next incarnation where it "collects" itself (the three parts), and has a lifetime. This energy signature has been extremely important for all parts to come together and to recognize each other. The problem started when we, as humans, have inventively, curiously, and manipulatively used this energy signature for other reasons than recognition of self. Mostly, it has been unconscious.

We send out our energy signatures to clients, friends, etc. as a way of signing our "work". The work can be hands on healing, absentee energy healing, talk therapy, cooking meals, favors, etc. What happens when we do this (remember, it is probably unconscious)? We have provided a path or trail between us (the sender) and the client (the receiver). We have "signed" our work. (Remember again, this is not the intent for the energy signatures). So as the person processes and releases the processed "stuff", it has a trail back to the originator, it follow the signature. This means that you, as a practioner, will get a very, very heavy clouded, crowded energy field, filled with processed processes of others. Although it doesn't enter your body, it remains in your auric field waiting to be processed. The client, remember, is done with it, but without meaning to unconsciously send the stuff back to you because there is a path provided by the energy signature). Also, some practioners actually consciously "sign" their work with the intent of providing a way for future business. It is a more sophisticated way of “hooking”, but cannot be seen as a “hook”.

Up until this lifetime, the signature has served a purpose, there was really no way other than having this energy signature in place for all parts to find self. It is time to remove the energy signature and replace it with 3 parts of a “key/lock/GPS system only recognizable to your “self”. That way, you can travel, dream, do out of body stuff and have a GPS/loc/key system unique only to you to help you “collect” self, but doesn’t affect or sign the energy work you do.

The energy signature is located in a particular place in your head (physical), removal and replacement with GPS/lock/key system is extremely precise and delicate because of all the nerves, arteries, veins, etc. entwined in the head. This removal is not an energetic snap, the signature is gone or think, whap, the signature is gone. It is really an operation involving delicate techniques developed specifically for this so no harm can be done to the individual. The procedure takes about 2 to 3 hours and is done absentee.
