- Have you had the feeling that you ought to be able to do something but can't?
- Have you ever felt that your life really shouldn't be as hard as it is?
- Have you ever felt ineffective no matter what you've done?
- Have you had unexplained pain for years?
- Do the things you do to improve your life not seem to work?
- Do you shift from one addictive behavior to another?
- Do you feel helpless to change it all?

Many people are silently disturbed because erratic behavior seems to be becoming a part of their daily life. Searching for an answer many have turned to therapy. Others try self-improvement seminars, books and tapes. For some that works out to be all they need. Others are not so lucky.

We believe many people aren't happy and are unable to change because they have active Atlantian or Lemurian crystal implants (now imprints in the etheric body) which have remained in place through many incarnations. These crystals are programmed to cause confusion and frustration, create limitations and ultimately prevent you from becoming who you are meant to be in this lifetime. They actively and currently prevent you from living this lifetime to your full potential and are a part of the etheric blueprint of your soul which affects your DNA.

The crystals can be removed safely through a process that we have developed over the years. The number of programmed crystals, crystal systems and the complexity of the master crystals were in direct correlation with the soul emitted energy level.

Time is of the essence. As the earth is changing and shifting, the people who lived during Atlantis or Lemuria need to be awakened and come forth. This is one way that can be of great assistance to you in your development during this incarnation. It is an opportunity to get these energy systems cleared. They can all be removed during one session.

Perhaps we can offer you some help.

We have the ability to facilitate Level One: Crystal Imprint Removal and all other levels of work absentee. All we need from you is your full birth name, current name, birth date, address and phone number.

Absentee Healing works with someone who is not physically present. Each healer develops his/her own way of doing this. Absentee healing takes place when the practitioner has the ability to increase the energy and focus this energy for the healing process on someone who is not physically present. Absentee healing works on all levels: mental, emotional and physical. The more the client can think his/her body 'open', the more the energy can be channeled and the more releases take place. The majority of our absentee work is done in the middle of the night when the veil of fear surrounding earth is the thinnest. We work with you while you are asleep or resting because that is when you are more receptive to the flow of energy.

Some people know exactly when we work with them even though we are miles apart and some do not. We feel that when you are in the safety of your own home in an environment that you have created to support your energy, more profound healing can take place.
