Level 50: Doorway to Quantum Love

We have been trying to come up with a definition for the word Love and feel that the true meaning of love has gotten lost in translation. It has become a “Kleenex” word with absolutely very little meaning. We have learned that physical love has polarity. If you were asked what the opposite of is, what would you say? Quantum Love has no polarity.

Diane talked about quantum everything in two of her blogs.... Read them here:

What appears ahead may confuse you and bewilder those who do not choose to see through it. LISTEN to your heart beat. Within its rhythm your Truth will speak. If it falls out of rhythm then listen to its FEELING... NOT your mind... NOT your fear... NOT your doubt... For fear and doubt can no longer be a part of your makeup. Make a decision to only be of a loving disposition and to concentrate on bringing the world the energy of quantum love that lies ahead for those that are ready.

Within quantum thinking, there are parts of yourself that are united with all life in all dimensions. You are connected to every aspect of being on the entire planet, as well as to every frequency of your quantum self. You personally do not travel to all the different places or frequencies. You merely change the frequency of your resonance and perceive reality through that perceptual filter.

The higher frequencies can perceive the lower frequencies but the lower frequencies cannot perceive the higher frequencies. With quantum thinking, you're not just raising your consciousness. You are expanding your consciousness so that you can simultaneously perceive all the realities in-between.

Those who have the ability to go to higher dimensions and return to the third dimension, still hold the habits of third dimensional thinking and are easily overwhelmed by the myriad of perceptions of the higher dimensions. When or if they become overwhelmed by the myriad of perceptions, they doubt their experiences. Doubt is an expression of fear, which lowers your consciousness below the perception of the higher dimensions. The new returnees also become overwhelmed by the fact that their every thought and emotion is instantly manifested. This instant manifestation also creates fear, which lowers their consciousness back into the limited perceptions of the third dimension. It takes practice and regularly doing the exercises when traveling back and forth so you won't go into or be overwhelmed with fear.

The people going through this process (ascending) often need to remember the feeling of QUANTUM LOVE, for only that frequency of consciousness can protect them from the fear, doubt and confusion of their newly expanded reality. It is quantum love that allows the full transition from your dense form of physical matter into our mutable form of light.

So let's talk about spiritual energy...

As people become more interested in spirituality and how it can change the world and improve their lives, the understanding of spiritual energy becomes a key factor in their growth and development. Like the principle of electrical generation, the principle of spiritual energy generation shows how a specific type of energy flow may be generated. In the case of electrical generation, a flow of electricity is created in a certain direction. In the case of spiritual energy generation, a flow of spiritual energy is created in a certain direction.

Spiritual energy is etheric energy conditioned by spiritual intent.

Etheric energy is a primary energy of the universe, while electric energy is a secondary, and is a more dense form of energy. Etheric energy is also known by many other names around the world, including life energy, vital energy, prana, bioenergy, orgone, ki, chi or qi.

For the last 5,000 years in traditional Chinese medicine, the vital pathways of etheric energy in the human body have been balanced using the healing modality of acupuncture. More recently, the electrical genius, Nikola Tesla, produced vast quantities of etheric energy using, apparently, very high frequency electricity as a method of attracting etheric energy out of the atmosphere. Etheric energy behaves very different from regular electricity, so he refers to it as "cold electricity."

Just as the atmosphere is filled with electrons, ready to be channeled through an electric generator, so it (the atmosphere) is also filled with etheric energy. Energies are supplied and replenished by the sun and central sun, including the mental energy that forms the global mind atmosphere or mind belt around the earth.

The mind belt is conditioned by the thoughts and emotions of humankind. Each person constantly attracts mental energy, conditions it by their thoughts and actions, and passes it back into the mind belt. Every one of us affects everyone else. A spiritual act – one which expresses unconditional love – by anyone anywhere upon the planet improves the mind belt of the whole planet. A destructive act by anyone anywhere upon the planet degrades the mind belt of the whole planet.

Etheric energy is a more subtle energy than electricity, and a more dense energy than mental energy. However, because of its vibrational proximity to mental energy, it responds readily to applied mental pressure. The human mind can, through visualizing certain intent, attract etheric energy, condition it in any way desired, and then direct it towards any desired objective. An individual who successfully uses this technique must be in a state of neutrality or it will skew the outcome of the original intent. (This is true manifestation.) However true manifestation and directed manifestation is impossible to achieve without the doorway open to Quantum Love.

In 1831, at the dawn of the electrical era, visionary scientist Michael Faraday published his discovery of the law of electromagnetic induction. This law, or principle, states that an electric current will be induced in a conductor when it is moved across a magnetic field.

At the time, it seemed like the strangest thing in the world. Moving a conductor forward across a magnetic field would invoke an electrical current sideways in the conductor. This discovery showed that, with electrical generation, nothing happened in the same direction as anything else. All three directions in space were involved --- a metal conductor that ran forward through a magnetic field that ran vertically, producing an electric current that ran sideways. It was truly awe-inspiring to those who saw this phenomenon clearly demonstrated for the first time. Although it is “old hat” to us, this discovery then opened the door to the generation of electricity in large quantities. As the idea was developed, electricity went on to replace steam as the working medium of the Industrial Revolution, and later gave birth to the field of electronics.... Yes, this – although probably yawn inspiring to you... was extremely monumental.

Today, the new frontier of discovery is in spiritual energy. Realizing that spiritual energy exists, and understanding how it can be attracted, conditioned and transferred, opens up a whole new realm of possibilities in humankind’s use of all type of universal energies. Remember – again – no one believed all the tenets of electricity either...

Both electric energy and etheric energy respond to pressure. In the case of electrical energy, voltage is the measure of electrical pressure. The more voltage you have available, the more electrical energy you can move through a circuit. In the case of etheric energy, the application of pressure via mental intent is similar to the principle of voltage. The more intense your intent, the more etheric energy you will move toward your intended objective. For example, if you are sending distance healing energy to a friend at another location, the stronger the pressure of your applied intent, the more healing energy you can generate and transfer to them.

There is a key difference between plain, unconditioned, etheric energy and spiritual energy. Spiritual energy is etheric energy conditioned by spiritual intent. In order to achieve the spiritual conditioning of etheric energy and transform it into spiritual energy, the individual's consciousness has to first rise into the frequency range of spiritual consciousness.

In the human heart lies the doorway from material consciousness to spiritual consciousness. According to Owen Waters (a spiritual metaphysicist), there are two levels of heart centered consciousness, and they resonate at different frequencies. It is a yin and yang situation. The lower, passive level is heartfelt consciousness, where the person adjusts to the experience of unconditional love. The higher, active level is heart-powered consciousness, where the person puts that heart-centered awareness into action.

The doorway to spiritual consciousness is between those two levels of heart-centered awareness.

We have been told there are two major tiers of human consciousness, each tier containing six stages. The basic tier has a materialistic focus and ranges from the earliest historical expression of human consciousness, all the way through the evolution of empowered action and achievement and into heartfelt awareness. In this heartfelt state of consciousness, humans shift from supporting, for example, mindless commercial expansion into an awareness where the environment becomes an important issue.

Humans then progress into the second tier of six stages of human evolution. This is the spiritual tier and, by stepping into it, humankind today is making a quantum leap in awareness. This is the essential nature of what is transforming today... As each human spends more and more time in the spiritual tier, they engage in more and more heart-powered action, changing the world through applied unconditional love.

The average person in Western society today is still in the commercial expansion stage of consciousness and yet, with one foot very much planted in the heartfelt consciousness of ecology issues. Meanwhile, today's pioneers are spending more and more time venturing into the spiritual tier of consciousness and expanding the awareness of all humanity.

So... the generation of spiritual energy is carried out through spiritual intent applied to the universal supply of etheric energy. The spiritual tier of consciousness begins with heart-powered consciousness and is entered through the doorway of the heart. The degree of intent determines the amount of etheric energy that will be conditioned into spiritual energy. Intent is also used to direct the spiritual energy towards the desired objective, such as distance healing, world healing or simply for enhancing meditation.

It all starts with intent...

We have known for a long time that the major energy centers in the body have a front and a back. We also have known that the purpose of the front and back energy centers or chakras have a different purpose. What we are now learning is that the front and back of your chakras vibrate to different frequencies. With this knowledge you could say that each chakra, other than the root and crown, is comprised of two different notes.

So this level, in order to be successful, takes intent along with sound (your personal singing), our ability to open the doorway to give you access to Quantum Love. So we have included the information below.

Harmonizing with the Universe

Singing is an act of vibration. It takes music from the realm of the unformed – whether that is in your mind or from that magical space of inspiration – and moves it from within you to without. From the first breath singing moves the energy in a circular way inside your body. As the breath fills your lungs, it brushes against the second and third chakras – the centers of creation and honoring self and others. Instead of merely exhaling, pushing the air past the fourth and fifth chakras where the heart chakra and the center of will and intention reside, singing engages both the heart and mind. Sound vibrations from vocal chords resonate in the sinus cavities, filling the head with motion and sound while the brain lights up with the processing of the mathematics of music. This marriage of activities brings the third eye into play and opens the door for inspiration from the crown chakra before sending the sound out into the world. Once the vibration begins, it is sustained with each note, moving throughout your body and the space around you. This can help you to harmonize your frequency with the world and with the divine. The use of the voice can bring about catharsis, a cleansing from the expression of emotion, which is why we feel better after singing certain types of songs. All of this occurs even if we are not conscious of what we are singing, but when we really connect with an intention, the power of the voice and music together are powerful tools in creation.

Cost for this level is $1400. It is beyond us trying to justify the cost... because it is a combination of the tremendous time spent figuring this information out and translating it, figuring out what in the heck to do and then developing techniques on how to do it, then putting it all on paper... that is only the beginning.... The process for us to “do” “perform” “whatever” is lengthy.... So... that is some of the why... the other why is that is what “they” told us... so that is that....

Even if you are not a singer by nature or talent... you are not left out. If you have a voice, it is your birthright to celebrate life with song. It doesn't matter if you don't feel you have a voice. Chanting or humming, singing solo or with others, your voice is yours to enjoy. Whether you sing along to the radio or use vocalization as part of your meditation time, singing and harmonizing are healing activities that bring your body's vibrations into alignment with the universe.

With this level, we can open the doorway but that isn't enough. You have to sing in any way that you can to assist your process in raising your vibration to reach the very fine vibration of Quantum Love. The statement below, we believe, refers to true Quantum Love and not physical love. A verse we are well aware of, but unfortunately, our physical love has polarity – quantum love does not. We did not know the difference until our doorway was opened. Now this bible verse makes more sense. For us, everything changed.

Love is patient, love is kind and is not jealous; love does not brag and is not arrogant, does not act unbecomingly; it does not seek its own, is not provoked, does not take into account a wrong suffered, does not rejoice in unrighteousness, but rejoices with the truth; bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never fails...

We have found after doing this work, energy flows easier, things seem to be manifesting in a more rapid, controlled state in all aspects of our life. Channeling is much clearer and “cleaner” and understandable... affecting information we receive to share with everyone to personal information giving us ideas for jewelry, quilting, writing – all our “fun” stuff. Again, it has changed all aspects of “us” What fun!!!!

Again, the cost for this level is $1400.
