As we get closer and closer to the Venus Transit we have been receiving more and more messages from our clients and other sources that talk about the possibilities of change. Many of these sources are fear based. When you think about fear, it is a very low vibration and it is a way of controlling people. When and if events happen, we have got to remain neutral and not be sucked into the vibration that is being created by the media (newspapers, email, TV radio, etc.). As you read or listen to the events that are happening or predicted.... read between the lines to determine its truth or “spin”.... When you get sucked into the group vibration of fear you will be of no help to the changes that are predicted to take place with Mother Earth and its population. Be clear with what your intent is. Issues may come up to assist you in releasing your old patterns and when this happens do not shut down, think your body open, become centered and continue forward without fear. This is a time you need to be awake. Trust your intuition and stay open. Do not shut down and be taken in by the fear that is being generated around you. The following link is just information... (Do not try to analyze this.. just use it for information. Do not try to figure out the rightness or wrongness, just put it with all your other information, sort it out according to your knowledge base, your own intuition, etc.)

- Here is some more information on the Venus Transit that we have gathered since we last sent out our email:

The SHIFT is upon us... Get ready for the down load!

Aluna Joy Yaxk'in writes, “For over 20 years the Star Elders have shared various visions. These visions were based in the past, present day, and our future. Over the last few weeks another vision came and though it didn't seem to have any relation to the others, a series of visions lit up like a string of lights. In Mexico many years back, I woke up with the story of why the Maya and other South American civilizations were conquered so easily. I was told why Columbus, Montago, Pissaro, Cortez and all the other conquerors were able to take down entire empires with so few men, horses and weapons. Lets face it, how many men and horses could they cram on one of those little ships anyway and not to mention that they were in weakened states of health when they arrived. We know what the history books say, but this is what the Star Elders share about this time and what it means to us today. In time and space there are time openings - sort of time rips, or time viruses.

Sometimes Earth passes through one, or a series of these openings. When we enter into one of these rare places it is possible for lower dimensions to enter higher ones without doing the necessary preparation or spiritual work. When this happens it imposes a lower nature on to a higher dimension. In a order to balance the situation the higher worlds usually fall, and the lower ones gain more power than they know how to handle. This was the case of the Conquers and the Americas.

This vision was also a warning to us at this important time. It was revealed that we will enter a similar time or space. It is important that we finish our spiritual work and purge our negative egos (outside egos) so as not to damage the next dimension with our lower natures. I was shown that we must enter this next world in a state surrender and allow the next world to be our teacher.” In other words, Park your egos at the door folks, after all we do not want to become the next Cortez or Columbus while entering in the next phase. (Now don't go into fear here.... this is just information.....)

So here is the scoop. They said "The SHIFT is upon us... Get ready for the down load!" We have come to the place we have all been waiting for. We are about to embark on the shift of the ages.

What is happening is ALL the upper and lower dimensions are going to make a big leap in consciousness together with us right in the middle of it all. What is happening is doorways are beginning to crack open on all levels and dimensions. The BIG MANEUVER is that all these different dimensions have to open and shift at the same time, this way lower dimensions will not contaminate the higher ones.

It is like a stack of pancakes with a cord running down the center through all of the layers. The entire stack of pancakes has to shift at the same time, space, and speed to make it all work on all levels and so that no dimension will come down with the so called time virus.

Some new symptoms we have been seeing during this shift...

Emotionally we are seeing deep grief and loss of interest in current goals;

Loss of sense of self;

Heightened Kundalini energy;

Panic attacks;

Heart palpitations;

Visions or experiencing dimensional doorways either by seeing or hearing them and future door ways;
We are having weird dreams and old visions being rekindled;
We have been feeling restless and with a deep need to do something/ anything;
Unusual visuals in the inner and outer worlds;
Electrical disturbances with computers and any other electronic devices;
In relationships we are meeting soul mates after long and fruitless searches, and ending dis- harmonic relationships that were out of alignment;
Many are feeling like they are going to die, or want to give up;
We are seeing a increased number of family and friends passing away. (Could it be we are dying to the old ways the old world, letting go of our attachments to this world so we can move on to the next?)

So what is causing all this shifting?

The information received is that it is the current Venus Transit we have just entered. A Venus Transit is when Venus retrogrades and passes in front of the Sun. Venus retrogrades every 260 days but it only passes over the sun every 122 years. The exact Transit is on June 8th, beginning 5 am GMT, UK time zone (Pacific Standard time it is from 9 PM on 6/7/04 to 4 am 6/8/04, you can do the math for your time zone). It will take about 7 hours for Venus to pass in front of the Sun. The last time this happened was in 1882. No one alive today has felt this energy before.

The ancient Mayas call the Venus-Sun Transti the return of Quetzacoatal but is also a symbol of death and a rebirth of a higher consciousness. The Venus Transit repeats again on June 6th 2012, the very near of the end of the Mayan Long count calendar (ending on 12/21/2012) and the ending of a huge 26,000-year cycle. In Christianity the Venus-Sun Transit symbolizes the return of the Christ Consciousness. Christ and Quetzacoatal are both messengers of love and wisdom, light and knowledge.

Venus is like a Holy Grail in the stars holding the power of the feminine, the power of love, and the power of abundance. Our Sun is power house of lighted divine wisdom. When the two planets cross paths it will give us the ability to take all relationships, intimate and otherwise to the next higher level.

Where on Earth can you view the Transit?

Observers in the UK are hoping to watch the Transit on June 8 just after sunrise.

Venus will appear as a small black disc as it moves across the bottom of the Sun between 6am and 12.30pm. British stargazers are praying for good weather so they can witness this event. The planet last made a Transit in December 1882 but it could not be seen properly observed from the UK due to clouds.

How will it affect us?

With this connection between love and wisdom we will gain insight through love (not force) to evolve our present evolutionary crisis. The Venus-Sun Transit will trigger a huge soul desire to obtain deeper knowledge to find better answers to problems and build common ground between different cultures.

We will experience a concrete knowing of true authentic love and wisdom with a huge breakthrough of intuitive awareness and psychic abilities. With our participation this can be the beginning of true global community ending our limited perceptions. It could be the end of separation due to class, race and religion. We will find that any thing in our lives that is out of harmony may dissolved away and long awaited opportunities will appear just as if we dreamed them into reality.

Present relationships will be under the magnifying glass. This Transit will cause us to consider the reality of higher energies and realize deep spiritual connections.

With Venus (love and abundance) in the Sun's path (wisdom and light) we can expect opportunity for new divine love, an opportunity to have more abundance, and most of all to gain deep wisdom. We might be inspired to act on visions we previously had hesitations about. We can expect more balance and harmony in our lives while re-committing to higher truths. In past history Venus Transits have preceded huge breakthroughs in human consciousness.

Watch out and avoid negative predictions, as there will be many. Involvement in any type of fear based information will block you from receiving your own inner truth. Remember fear blocks spirit! It is simple as that. We want to emphasize that Mother Earth is moving in accordance with her intention to reach higher vibrational levels... Please do not let fear deter you from going along with her!!! Keep this in mind.

How can we get the most out of this event????

Here are some suggestions to take full advantage of the Venus-Sun Transit. One day before June 7-8th ----- dig deep and dump the junk, the ego, the programs and assumptions that hold you back from expressing your true authentic self. Purge and release any dis-harmonic energy, relationship(s) or event(s) in your lives. Be sure to clear out any emotional entanglements. Get yourself completely clear. You can do this by first of all being conscious.... write things down, state things, you can even yell things, beat drums ----anything that will help you release what you are trying to get rid of.

Watch out for a desire to back up, or to return to something, someone, or some situation that is familiar (old patterns that you are trying to get rid of). For example we might want to retreat back into an old relationship for comfort and safety. If we go backwards, it will be a painful experience and will not work out. There is no going back. There is no comfort zone right now. There is NO safety net... it is the time to go forward... you have been working your whole life for this.... You are entering into new territory. It is an exhilarating adventure that will get your heart pumping so don't assume this is fear. You are just excited!

To keep our faces toward change, and behave like free spirits in the presence of fate, is strength undefeatable ~ Helen Keller

During the exact 7 hour period of the Transit, intend to radically alter your life by calling in a higher order of harmony, peace and love. Remember that loving yourself is also loving all life, so don't forget to put yourself on this list.

Remember we are all intimately connected. It is time to love without fear and to know without hesitation. Intend to bond with your love interest on a deeper and higher level. You can also apply this to other significant relationships. Allow your heart to bond with your community, country and planet. It will be up to us if we take Venus and Sun's gift that it is offering.

What will be the outcome of this event?????

The effects of the Venus Transit will be subtle at first but will begin a powerful inner and outer transformation that will grow at a multiplying rate of speed. At first the effects may not be dramatic but they will go deep and be enduring and will change the core of our reality as we know it. This Venus Transit is without a doubt, a shift from a world based in force and fear, to a world based in Love. That this alone is worth the price of admission we paid to experience this event! So have Patience.. have patience... have patience... many of the changes will not be evident to you folks that try to analyze and chart everything... but they will be real and they will be happening.....

This event is the first stage of cracking open a huge door we have been waiting to open. They said that we will be through the door a long time before the Maya end date of December 2012. The best guess based on our current state of consciousness is we will jump through to the higher dimension sometime in 2008 - ONLY 4 YEARS! We will have a lot to do in that time frame but we have done so much already. Once through to the other side, humanity will have achieved its goal. We will open our consciousness and intense desire for new answers to old issues. We will have downloaded new cutting edge knowledge that will change the face of how we approach our lives. We will gain the capacity to embody the principle of universal compassion, universal love and universal knowledge. We will understand new possibilities and expose new secrets of life. We will have the means to prevent our own extinction by human error. We will be able to release the grip of darkness that threatens our survival and be able call the higher dimensions at will.

Telepathy will replace inter-net creating a new field of communication. The development of the 6th sense and mass enlightenment will be considered normal! Now that sound like a great future to us!
