No. 32, September 2007

Good morning or good afternoon, whichever applies,

Ok, so where have we been? Actually, we have written several newsletters since the one we sent out in April, but we have also been trying to revise our website (do I hear cheers?) at the same time. We had a deadline in our heads for the middle of June for the rollout of the revised website and announce it in the newsletter, but, alas, not only did we not meet that date, but we have also missed our July and August deadlines. Waiting to send out the newsletters certainly was a mistake. This time, however, we will send out a very short newsletter, followed by a more comprehensive one later on. We need to get this out because of the nearing 9/9/9 date(s) and to announce new work. However, we are still working on the website, and hopefully we will get it reformatted soon. We have also purchased a domain name for Loren's jewelry. He has been busy designing lots of new pieces

Many energetic dates and eclipses have come and passed over the summer months all leading us to what is occurring in September, the month for the completion of your major projects.

September is an important month this year because 9/9/9 reoccurs three times. September 9, 2007, September 18, 2007 and September 27, 2007. Numerologically speaking, this is very powerful and a time for completing projects and connections that have reached fruition. You can plan your own quiet time around these numbers and if you are anal, you can also add the time as 9:09.09 (meaning 9 o'clock, 9 minutes and 9 seconds past 9, etc.). Whatever works for you.

For those of you who are interested in participating in a global meditation, we have clients leading a meditation at the Great Pyramid, in Cairo, Egypt from 3:30-5:30 p.m. (U.S. and Canada: 5:30-7:30 a.m. PST, 6:30-8:30 a.m. MST, 7:30-9:30 a.m. CST, 8:30-10:30 a.m. EST, 4:30-6:30 a.m. Hawaii). The title of the event is Creating the New Earth, 9.9.9 Circle the Pyramid Event Ceremony Meditation. There is a meditation written especially for this event at: <http://www.circlethepyramid2007.com/group-energy.htm#Event>

If you have trouble with the above line, type in www.circlethepyramid2007.com and click on the meditation.

Giza marks the central focal point of Earth's energy with the Great Pyramid constructed to match our own pyramids of lights with that of the Universe's. This in itself is powerful and testimonies from spiritual travelers who came to Egypt and participated during the 9-year journeys to re-activate the Grid of Unconditional Love speak of how intentions manifest suddenly and in unusual and unexpected ways. The energies within the Great Pyramid Tap directly into the Mind of the Universe and seem to bypass social consciousness patterns and illusions. Now add the intensity of an event of epic proportions with intentions for global change, and you can see the need to be absolutely clear with your intentions and allow for only that which is for the Highest Good.

The people conducting this meditation have invited us to participate in this event remotely. This should be fun. Mark the date September 9, 2007 and time (for your time zone) on your calendar now...

New work has been coming in all summer. It has taken us literally months to figure out exactly what it was. Some light at the end of the very long tunnel was presented when we happened to read a quote by Andrew Cohen. He wrote: "If we are serious about spiritual evolution, sooner or later each and every one of us must come to a soul-level reckoning with our own fundamental intention. We have to come to a decision about what matters not – a decision that is not relative. We have reached a point in our own development from which there really is no turning back from the path we have chosen.

Once you decide to take your own development that seriously, what it means is that your ego's agenda is no longer valid, no longer relevant to you. It doesn't mean the ego dies, it doesn't mean it will cease to clamor for attention and create fear and confusion. But it means you have found another part of yourself, which I call the "Authentic Self". And through that self you have found a direction that exists in a different dimension, a completely different orientation or agenda than that of the ego.

Many of us tend to think we need time to get ready, to prepare ourselves for such a commitment, to overcome certain fears and doubts we may struggle with. And from a certain point of view that's true. But if you have the humility and the courage to face into the overwhelming and awesome nature of the authentic self, you will discover that actually you don't really need any time at all. The authentic self is none other than the evolutionary impulse itself, the original intention that created the universe, the causal inspiration behind the big bang. And that powerful creative urge is always ready now. That part of you and that part of me is not ambivalent; there is no fear, no doubt, and no hesitation, in its nature. Awakening to the authentic self is what makes it possible, right now, for you to embrace a fearless, passionate, courageous, committed, and utterly thrilling engagement with life."

Believe it or not, that quote brought together a mass of information, pictures, and waking dreams we were having over the spring and summer seasons. We finally were able to piece together the entire puzzle. Level 21 is attached.

Echo Bodine wrote, "Living by your inner voice is like walking through life with your best friend in your pocket."

Well, although this newsletter is short, at least we got it out.
